New Generation Ministries International grows locally, shares internationally, and names RGM Communications as its agency of record

WYLIE, TEXAS—Feb. 4, 2008—New Generation Ministries International, a newly formed ministry serving north Dallas and global missions organizations, selected RGM Communications for local and national marketing communications and public relations.

"We're a Christian ministry focused on serving spiritual needs that reach from north Dallas to Cameroon, Africa," said Carece Slaughter, co-founder of the ministry. "RGM Communications is helping us build the message of The New Generation. We're a gathering of people who blend our 'sameness' and differences to be a New Generation of people of different ages, stages of life, ethnicities and more. Whether we're teens, young families, middle-aged, single, married, divorced widowed or gracefully mature, we are united in worshiping and sharing Jesus Christ with our neighbors, friends and all the nations."

RGM Communications is a Wylie, Texas-based marketing communications and public relations firm for small- and mid-sized businesses. Its specialty is Business Communications for the Real World™, which includes business-to-business public relations, marketing communications and copywriting. Available services include media relations, analyst relations, employee communications, crisis communications and design/development and writing of brochures, blogs, Web sites, online newsletters, podcasts, videos and more. The company is led by Roy G. Miller, who has more than 20 years experience as a professional business communicator in Dallas. He also serves as a board member and past president of the International Association of Business Communicators/Dallas.
